
We live as though we don’t feel the magnificence of divine providence.

God’s very adroit. We can’t understand His actions.

Don’t think that God’s done something wrong and then corrected it: God doesn’t make mistakes. He doesn’t correct anything.

But Who God is in His profundity, in His essence, we don’t know. We can’t probe the counsels of God.

» Venerable Porphyrios of Kavsokalyvia

Source: pemptousia.com