

LocBee Gee Barry Gibb unveils Cypriot sculpture in Australia

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English / Ξένες γλώσσες

Greek-Cypriot sculptor Philip Piperides has created three bronze statues of the famous Bee Gees band.

Barry Alan Crompton Gibb, the eldest and last surviving Gibb brother, returned to Australia on Feb.14 to attend the unveiling of a life-size statue created in honor of the legendary disco band. A few minutes before Gibb unveiled the monument, he shook Piperidis' hand and told him: "You did a good job."

He also told the reporters: "I liked that he made us with bare feet. So we were in our lives. " Barry Gibb has unveiled a statue of the Bee Gees in the Australian town where he spent part of his childhood. \(περισσότερα...\)