Family of America’s Largest Privately Owned Abortion Chain, Died in Montana Plane Crash!

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

This picture taken by eyewitness Martha Guidoni with her cellphone and provided by the Montana Standard shows a small, singe-engine plane bursting into flames in Holy Cross Cemetery on March 22, 2009 just south of the Bert Mooney Airport in Butte, Montana. All 17 people on board were killed, many of them children heading on a skiing holiday, federal aviation officials said. The plane, a single engine turboprop, was heading from Oroville, California, just north of San Francisco on a 900-mile (1,500-kilometer) journey to Bozeman, Montana. EDS NOTE: Best quality available. Some of you may have seen the major news story of the private plane that crashed into a Montana cemetery, killing 7 children and 7 adults.

But what the news sources fail to mention is that the Catholic Holy Cross Cemetery owned by Resurrection Cemetery Association in Butte – contains a memorial for local residents to pray the rosary, at the ‘Tomb of the Unborn’. This memorial, located a short distance west of the church, was erected as a dedication to all babies who have died because of abortion. (περισσότερα...)
