

Repentance & Turnaround (Saint Nicholas Velimirovich)

Repentance without a complete turnaround is nothing more than a travesty before God and the soul. It doesn't do to play with God.

He shows mercy to those who repent, but chastises harshly those who don't repent at all or who do so only partially and insincerely.

And when God strikes, the wound is very deep and no-one can heal it except God Himself.
