Sex, Pornography, and the Media

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

By Fr. Paul O'Callaghan

Several years ago, U.S. News and World Report magazine surveyed 500 leading businessmen, government officials, and professionals as to what was the most influential force in America. Television came in first. I think they were right. I believe that there is no greater force in North America for influencing the way people think and behave than the media at large: T.V. especially, but also radio, movies, magazines, and to a lesser degree, newspapers.
