

17 Απριλίου 2016

The heart equals life (John of Kronstadt)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

In education, it's exceptionally dangerous to pay attention only to the development of the intellect and knowledge, ignoring the heart. We should look to the heart above all else, because the heart is life, but life which sin has corrupted. Society is corrupt precisely because we don't have Christian education.