

11 Μαΐου 2016

The right way (Theophan the Recluse)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

People who preserve the experience of painful contrition before the Lord in all its potency, an experience which comes from the recognition of the dangers and difficulties of the spiritual life, these people have found the right path.