Essentially, we're all the same (Saint John of Kronstadt)

Love every person indiscriminately. Never mind if they're weak and sinful. Don't think about the sin, but about where the person comes from, which is the image of God Himself. Don't let the weaknesses of others bother you – their badness, pride, envy, voracity or gluttony. You're not short of problems yourself. Basically, as regards our relationship to sin, we're all the same.
