The greatest proof (Saint John of Kronstadt)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

The mind wanders and is in a state of isolation and dereliction. But when we believe, with living faith, that God is everywhere, in every place, at every moment, and is always with us and within us, the heart becomes serene, it's free, bright, alive, and the mind's clear. It then works as the most powerful proof of the existence of Him Whom I doubt.
