

Weeds spring up (Saint Ignatius Brianchaninoff)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

God gives His mercy abundantly. But it's up to us, with our free will, whether we accept it or reject it, as well as whether we accept it whole-heartedly or hypocritically. Because on this earth, weeds grow so quickly, they put down deep roots and spread wildly.