

26 Μαρτίου 2010

Turkey threatens to expel 100,000 Armenians

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Turkey's prime minister has threatened to deport 100,000 Armenian migrants, amid renewed tensions over Turkish mass killings of Armenians in World War I.

Recent resolutions in the US and Sweden have called the killings "genocide".

Recep Tayyip Erdogan told the BBC that of 170,000 Armenians living in Turkey "70,000 are Turkish citizens".

Read more...

\(περισσότερα...\)