

They get their reward (Saint Symeon the New Theologian)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Those who patiently bear sorrows, persecutions and the trials of this life, with the aim of pleasing God, buy themselves heavenly goods and everlasting bliss. With the death of the body, they pay for their eternal and immortal life with our Eternal and Immortal God.