10 Απριλίου 2010

Polish president’s plane crashes in Russia

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

A firefighter examines wreckage of the plane that carried Polish President Lech Kaczynski, his wife and some of the country’s most prominent military and civilian leaders. (Associated Press / April 10, 2010)

Reporting from Moscow

Polish President Lech Kaczynski was killed when his presidential plane crashed Saturday trying to land in thick fog in the Russian city of Smolensk.

There were no survivors of the crash of the Tupolev 154 plane. The head of the Polish military; the head of the presidential administration; the Polish central bank chief, members of parliament and the president’s wife were also killed. (περισσότερα…)