They make our path difficult (Saint John of Kronstadt)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Flatterers are our greatest enemies. They blind us and don't allow us to see our many faults. So they make it difficult for us to progress to perfection, especially if we're selfish and don't look ahead. This is why we shouldn't listen to those who flatter us and should avoid them. Pity those who are surrounded by flatterers.
