The powerful impediments (Elder Ephraim of Arizona)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Oh, how good God is. It's right that my fellow-sinners should go to Hell for ignoring the infinite mercy of our heavenly Father. Although we err, as people, it's difficult for us to say 'I've sinned'. How can we do so when we -and I'm the worst at this- when we have a short memory, sloth, and pride as obstacles on the path to humility. Christ showed us, through the Cross, but, alas, we deliberately choose not to hear, much to our remorse.
