

2 Ιουλίου 2017

They saw to the needs (Saint Basil the Great)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

The grief and the tears of the Saints came from their profound feelings of love for God. The Saints experienced the presence of God all the time and this increased their joy accordingly. At the same time, however, they saw to the needs of others, grieving over those who'd sinned and helping them to start their repentance and reformation.