Condign punishment (Elder Filotheos Zervakos)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

They haven't read, they haven't heard that those who distance themselves from God are lost. If the nation is to recover, it needs a spiritual rebirth. It should put a stop to corruption and moral turpitude. It should end immorality, sin, injustice, greed, impiety and blasphemy. Look at the history of the Church and you'll see that, since the creation of the world, every transgression and disobedience has been justly punished.
