

There's no end to it (Elder Iosif the Hesychast)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

God can't be described and is not finite. Neither can His properties be. If, through the grace of the Holy Spirit, people enter into the bosom of glorification, they experience all these endless, imperceptible, untraceable and boundless properties. This is why I said that there's no end to repentance.