

7 Δεκεμβρίου 2017

The first of the virtues (Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Patience is a virtue, given that it's the fruit of hope in God. Sorrow leads to patience, patience to a tried and tested character and a tested character to hope. And, in the end, this hope doesn't disappoint. Patience is the first among the virtues, because it's the crown of our salvation.