It's beyond their ken (Saint Silouan the Athonite)

Lack of faith is the result of pride. People who are proud claim that they know everything through their mind and science. But knowledge of God is beyond their reach, because He is known only by revelation from the Holy Spirit. The Lord is revealed to humble souls. It's to these that He assigns His tasks, which are beyond the capacity of the mind to understand. With our physical mind, we can understand only earthly things, and even then only partially, while God and all the things of heaven are known only through the Holy Spirit.
