Avoid them (Saint Iakovos Tsalikis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

If we're not spiritually strong and another person's behaviour bothers us, let's not condemn them. Better to avoid them and to have no truck or dealings with them.

And if they're heretics, then we should avoid them entirely and have nothing to do with them. Because keeping company with heretics is dangerous. It can poison and deliver a mortal spiritual wound.
