Rachel's Lament (Mina Boulekou, Author-Poetress- Columnist)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

*Rachel was weeping for her children.
These words were spoken by prophet Jeremiah
The scripts have fulfilled .*

*Unbearable pain
was spread in Ramah Ruthless soldiers
surrounded innocent souls
obeyed to a blind verdict
death everywhere.
Vindictive swords
took their youth!

*Oh! Devious Herod
your hands are with blood
Oh! hear the voices of despair*

*Oh! hear the screams
that drown me down
to the valley of shadows.*

*I followed my little angels
with sorrow in my heart
The sunlight faded
to these blooming smiles.
A heavy winter spread everywhere around the world.*

*Their laughs were vanished
Where are the white lilies?
lying now.. in dark tombs?
away from our blessing land.*

*Where are you my son?
Where are you my daughter?
The angels guardians
shed tears everywhere...*

*Oh! Bloody Herod
you wrote a black history
in your wreckless kingdom.
And now nothing is left for us anymore.
There are no healing words to comfort us.
In dark and windless, I built my sadness mourned for my beloved.*

*My time became dust in the eternity
I closed my eyes, till I hear their voices again laughing in heaven!*
