It's not romanticism (Archimandrite Ephraim, Abbot of the Vatopaidi Monastery)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

If we really observe Christ's commandments, then we demonstrate that we love

Him, because, as He Himself said, 'those who love me keep my commandments'. And when the holy Fathers ask, 'Which commandments?', they answer 'All the commandments'. Then we'll show that Orthodoxy isn't philosophy and it isn't romanticism, but it's the very life of the Holy Spirit, it's Christ Himself, 'yesterday, and today, the same unto the ages of ages'.
