The best defence (Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Love of God is born of genuine faith, because those who love God can't bear ever to leave Him. Grass can withstand fire more easily than the devil can deal with the flame of love. Love is a better defence than a wall and more resilient than diamonds. Love isn't human words and concepts, nor mere declarations and addresses, but obvious concern backed up by works.
