Grave and weighty errors (Abba Dorotheos)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

If we recall the words of the great Elders, if we study them, it'll be hard for us to fall into sin, difficult for us to neglect ourselves. Because, if we act precisely as they advise us, and don't ignore the little things and what we might think of as insignificant, then we won't fall into great and grievous sins.
