Christ healing the blind

Sunday of the blind man

In today's Gospel, the Gospel of the blind man, we heard our Lord say, "As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world." (John 9:5)

What does it mean to have Christ as the light of the world or, on a more personal level, to have Christ as the light of our lives? In order to understand what it means to have Christ as our light, we must first acknowledge our own blindness. Like the man in the Gospel, most of us have been born blind when it comes to God and His Christ. We are unable to see that which is directly in front of us. (περισσότερα...)
