

9 Αυγούστου 2018

It's our duty (Saint Gregory the Theologian)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

People aren't worth less than an animal which, according to the law, if it falls into a ditch, you have to pull out and look after (Deut. 22, 1-4). So how kind should we be to our fellow human beings, when we're enjoined to have pity even on dumb animals?