

Love and pressure (Saint Porphyrios of Kavsoakalyvia)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

The supposedly 'pious' parents, whose concern was to make their children into 'good Christians', oppressed them through their human love and achieved the opposite to what they wanted.

Children are pressed when they're little and then, when they become sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, they go off in a different direction.

» Venerable Porphyrios of Kavsoakalyvia