Tell God about it (Saint Porphyrios of Kavsoakalyvia)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

When you see the devil at the throat of your child, instead of becoming angry with your offspring for going astray, speak to God about it. Whatever you'd have said to the child (because they'd react badly, given their character), tell it to God. Get down on your knees and, by God's grace, your words will be passed on to the child.
