

Turkey uses Cyprus as port of terror

The Thursday, July 29 2010 edition of The Washington Times, one of the most widely circulated political newspapers in America, published Cyprus Action Network of America (CANA) Press Officer, Nikolaos Taneris' letter to the editor "Turkey uses Cyprus as port of terror", responding to Mr. Hilmi Akil's the so-called "representative of Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus" , letter "Cyprus is not Gaza". Taneris' published letter to the editor highlights Turkish terrorist involvement in the Flotilla incident and Turkish Anti-Cypriot crimes in Cyprus, and will be read by thousands of Americans from political commentators to Washington insiders, think-tanks, foreign embassy workers and opinion makers. This is the caliber of smart activism that proves again and again and again how pivotal CANA is for public relations of the Cyprus Cause to Americans. Read more... \(περισσότερα...\)
