2 Αυγούστου 2010

A document by the Institute of Chartered Accountants reveals the plot set up by PASOK around the so called “Vatopedi scandal”

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English / Υπόθεση Μονής Βατοπαιδίου

They will be getting rid of one, fifty will come after him.

The PASOK government is in power for almost ten months and no one is yet able to tell us objectively how the state was hurt by the land exchanges with the Great and Holy Monastery of Vatopedi. Is this a coincidence? I do not think so, since the only body accredited worldwide for its objective property valuations is the Institute of Chartered Accountants(ICA). That is the reason why in cases of discrepancy between the valuations of a citizen and the state, the law gives the former the right to apply to the ICA, because its valuation is binding on the Inland Revenue!

Read more…

(περισσότερα…)