The angel counsels and exhorts me

When among the righteous and the sinners I recognized my relatives and friends the angel- guide warned me: “Dousan, you must not give an account on how each one of your friends and relatives looks like. You must only say what the sinners and the righteous look like”.

After these words, the angels sounded their trumpets again and the entire vision disappeared. Soon afterwards my angel -guide explained that on the day of the Judgment, all the people who will be living during that time will be reckoned among the risen, will be transformed as quickly as the shut of an eye and will have their deeds written on their foreheads.
