A terrible word (Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Despair! A terrible word, a word that denotes catastrophe, and a concatenation of all woes. There's nothing worse than despair. When people are in despair, they never run and try to find a cure. They leave the passion untreated, they allow it to become infected, to eat away at their hearts and to corrode their soul.
