

26 Μαΐου 2020

It leaps and dances (Saint Nectarios of Pentapolis)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

A soul which has been wounded by divine love is always joyful. It rejoices, gambols and dances because it floats securely in the Lord's love, just as people do in calm water. No grievous event in the world can disturb its peace nor detract from its joy and delight.