Alevites complain about Turkey with the ECHR

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

President of Cem Foundation and the honorary chair of the Federation of Alevite Foundations Prof. Dr.İzzettin Doğan said the current government of Turkey is not respecting their rights and fails to respond their demands. Therefore, they have complained about Turkey with ECHR.

Speaking in a press conference Doğan said they have been trying hard for the last 20 years not to take Turkey before an international court however, no promise given to the Alevite has been kept. “We have noticed that we cannot reach anywhere with politics. Therefore we have decided to legal remedies and took the situation before the ECHR.” added Doğan.
