

Holy Spirit as a person of the Holy Trinity

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

“Who together with the Father and the Son is worshipped”

According to the Patristic Theology, the Ascension of Christ is inherently connected to the descent of the Holy Spirit. Evidently, the Comforter's coming is an essential continuation of Christ's work on earth, as a part of His divine plan for the salvation of humanity.

By taking the human nature, Christ does not just complete the divine plan of His Father, but also continues to act and to attract the unique human hypostases where He entered as a Forerunner.

Read more