28. I feel strengthened and reassured

9.9.1999
“I am writing this letter to thank you for sending us the ribbon which has benefited me and my whole family.

I have been married for six years. During the first five we didn’t have a child. The Lord helped me get pregnant soon after our marriage, but we were not successful. A friend, who is visiting the Holy Mountain often, told us about the Holy Belt and said she could bring a ribbon to us. I replied that I very much wanted this ribbon, but was embarrassed to ask him again. In the meantime, we went on with our efforts to get pregnant. In January 1998, I started taking hormones.
