Herbs from Holy Mount Athos help cure illnesses!

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English / Προσκυνήματα-Οδοιπορικά-Τουρισμός

Calendula officinalis

Several herbs, endemic at the Holy Mount Athos, have been found to cure chronic illnesses like rheumatism, circulatory problems, allergies etc.

The Centre for the Research and Study of such herbs has been launched at the monastery of Vatopedi with the help of Italian scientists, most notable of which is professor Roberto Micinilli of the University of Viterbo.
