6 Νοεμβρίου 2010

Bartholomew I: "The Church will fight for her survival"

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew I

Numerous graves in the Christian-Orthodox graveyard on the Aegean Island of Gökceada were violated by unknown people. According to what was reported by some Turkish media and by the Austrian Catholic news agency Kathpress yesterday, the crosses of 78 gravestones were destroyed. The episode took place on 29 October, the national feast of Turkey. The island is home to some of the few Greek-Orthodox Christians who still live in the country. Bartholomew I, the Ecumenical Patriarch of Constantinople, …

Read more…

(περισσότερα…)