

Greece to Begin Proceedings Against Germany Over WWII Reparations

Greece will begin proceedings against Germany at the International Court of Justice (ICJ). This statement was made on Wednesday and is a bid to obtain compensation for the slaughter of hundreds of people from the town of Distomo during World War II.

Greek Prime Minister George Papandreou said he tabled the issue during a government cabinet meeting.

Read more...

\(περισσότερα...\)