27 Μαρτίου 2011

Rioters battle police after anti-cuts rally

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English / Ειδήσεις και Ανακοινώσεις

Black-clad, masked youths battled riot police and attacked banks and luxury stores in central London on Saturday, overshadowing a protest by more than a quarter of a million Britons against government spending cuts.

Police said they had arrested more than 200 people after anarchist groups splintered from the main union-led protest march and fought running skirmishes with riot police across the West End shopping and theatre district.

Read more…

(περισσότερα…)