6 Οκτωβρίου 2011

A Nation in Crisis

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

Sunken boat at Kerkyra.

29/05/2011 Article and photographs by Fr Gerasimos Koutsouras

During our recent trip to Greece, we were fortunate to visit a beautiful land which was rich in history, monuments, and culture. But at the same time we witnessed a society in crisis. The word crisis comes from, the Greek word krisis, which means, the moment of judgement, the moment at which things could go any way. Survival or collapse. (περισσότερα…)