Prisoner Antonis Papadatos, representing the prisoners of the sixth wing at Korydallos Detention Centre, has sent a ‘thank you’ letter to Elder Efraim, expressing his gratitude to the Lord for sending him to them!

The letter also refers to the problems the prisoners are facing, like crowded cells with more than 25 prisoners, the lack of cleanliness and the great dangers of catching diseases like typhus, cholera and tuberculosis.

‘In this letter we would like to publicly thank Elder Efraim for supporting us like a father with love and understanding but also for the sense of serenity which he has brought to us during the time of his detention. (περισσότερα…)
