The facts of St. Alexis's life are well documented – born in 1854 in Austro-Hungary, ordained in1878 to the priesthood of the Uniate church in Hungary, widowed and left childless soon after. He recovered from the loss of his family and spent almost ten years as a professor at seminary, specializing in church history and canon law, and as the Administrator of his Diocese. In 1889 he was appointed to serve as pastor of a Uniate parish in Minneapolis, Minnesota.
